CULTURAL ARRANGEMENTS

Classic connoisseurs know that at the Hotel Imperial you will come across famous maestros already during breakfast at the Café Imperial, before they conduct their orchestras at the Vienna State Opera or nearby Musikverein. If you think that a culture weekend needs extensive planning, you can rest assured that we will organize everything for you in advance. Your opera and concert tickets are already waiting for you at the concierge's desk.

Imperial reception at the Hotel Imperial. Built as the private residence for the Prince of Württemberg, the noble palace on Vienna's Ring Boulevard turned into the Hotel Imperial on the occasion of the 1873 World Exhibition. Crowned heads and state visitors, composers and artists feel at home here. Your personal stay at our house begins with your being picked up in a stylish limousine.

Living culture and enjoyment is the motto here. And it's no surprise considering that Vienna offers more than a hundred museums and over fifty theaters and opera houses. No other place on earth can come up with so many famous composers who lived here. At the Vienna State Opera you can see the most beautiful operas by Wagner, Verdi or Puccini. Did you know that Richard Wagner prepared his Lohengrin performance at the Hotel Imperial in 1875? Enjoy great maestri such as Georges Prêtre who conducted the New Year's Concert 2010 at the Musikverein.

While you prepare yourself for a performance at the Vienna State Opera, we are tuning you in on your culture evening with an opera program and a selection of canapés and sparkling champagne served to your room. Our concierge opens the doors for you to neighboring Albertina. One of the world's finest art collections has been housed since 1805 in the Albertina, a grand Viennese palace in the neoclassical style. Great exhibitions like the famous collection Batliner or Andy Warhol will show breathtaking art.

On Monday we will say goodbye to you with an exquisite gift reminding you of a rich and relaxing culture weekend in Vienna.
