IMPERIAL WELCOME AT HOTEL IMPERIAL

Built as the private residence of the Prince of Württemberg, the elegant palace on Vienna's Ring Boulevard was transformed into the Hotel Imperial on the occasion of the 1873 World Exhibition. Crowned heads and state visitors, celebrities and maestros, cosmopolitans and widely travelled visitors – used to reside at only the best addresses - feel at home here. Your personal stay begins with you being picked up in a stylish limousine, we will provide any conveniences possible – even sparkling champagne is included.

A TRIBUTE TO VIENNESE TRADITIONS

At midnight the 'Pummerin', St. Stephen's Cathedral's imposing bell, rings in the New Year. In these moments the Hotel Imperial hosts an exclusive New Year's Eve gala in its historical Festive Halls. Unforgettable nights bear the three-quarter time of past centuries: The Vienna waltz was born in the very center of the Habsburg Empire. Acquaint yourself with the waltz on December 30th in the course of a dancing lesson at the Imperial's enchanting Marble Hall.

GREAT ART

At the museum Albertina you will come across two world famous and exceptional artists – Michelangelo and Picasso. For the first time in twenty years this major exhibition offers a hitherto unparalleled overview of the great Florentine's entire oeuvre. The Albertina shows precious works from the own Graphic Arts Collection, as well as important international loans. Further you will discover Picasso and his political thinking – since 1944 until the end of his life – entirely molded by his desire for peace and freedom. Fifty paintings and hundred drawings, as well as numerous historical documents highlight Picasso as a political figure. Our concierge will open the doors for you to a true art experience.

CULTURAL ENJOYMENT

More than hundred museums and over fifty theaters and opera houses invite you to a cultural experience in Vienna. No other place on earth can come up with so many famous composers who lived here, in Vienna. Beethoven's Ninth Symphony with the 'Ode to Joy' at the Konzerthaus, 'The Bat' at the State Opera or Volksoper and the acclaimed New Year's Eve Concert by the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra at the Musikverein right behind the Hotel Imperial are your cultural highlights towards the end of the year.

Ring in the New Year in the noble ambience of the Hotel Imperial, amidst Vienna's historical center. Let yourself be pampered by culinary highlights in the festive halls, where guests have always known how to celebrate the beginning of a New Year!
